

WHereas the right honorable Henric Earle of Huntingdon hath paid in ready mony to Sir Thomas Smith Knight, Treasurer of Virginia, the summe of four hundred in full summe of 120 ~~by~~ for his adventures towards the said voiage.
It is agreed, that for the same, he the said Henric Earle of Huntingdon his heires, executors, administrators or assignes, shall haue ratably according to his adventure, his full part of all such lands, tenements and heriditaments, as shall from time to time bee there recouered, planted, and inhabited : And of such Mines and Mineralles of Gold, Siluer, and other Metals or Treasure, Pearles, Precious stones, or any kinde of wares or Merchandizes, commodities or profits whatsoeuer, which shall be obtained or gotten in the said voiage, according to the portion of money by him imploied to that vse, in as ample maner as any other Adventurer therein shall receiue for the like summe.
Written this 2^d of December 1613.

Sealed in presence of James Smith

2. December. 1613.

A bill of Adventure for the sum^t of 40^l.
by the r. honor^{ble} the E: of Huntingdon. being the 3rd part by his E: towards the advancement of the plantation of Virginia.